Leave a Lasting Legacy

A gift in your Will is an opportunity to invest in future generations of Christian scholarship. By remembering The Phoebe Scholarship in your estate planning, you can help support women undertaking doctoral studies in theology and biblical studies who have evangelical and egalitarian commitments, enabling their research, teaching and leadership to enrich the Australian church for many years to come.

Every gift, regardless of its size, contributes to a lasting legacy of faithful scholarship and service.

Your family comes first

We encourage you to provide for your family and loved ones before considering a charitable gift. After doing so, you may wish to remember The Phoebe Scholarship in your Will as an expression of your Christian faith and commitment to future generations.

You may choose to leave:
